CURATED FURNITURE COLLECTIONS FOR CONTEMPORARY LIVING

Myers Court is the height of contemporary living. Tailored to the individual, the development follows the notion that design should always be client led. Eerospace have combined this with our understanding of interior design to bring even more flexibility and choice to the buyer; removing the hassle from the design process.

our offer

We create bespoke furniture packages around a client's needs and taste. We don't believe in a branded look. The client will guide the design from stylings to budget and each tailored selection will have a lead time of 2-4 weeks.
